

Emily points to a man in a photograph and says, "His father-in-law's only daughter is my mother-in-law." How is Emily related to the man in the photograph?

The man in the photograph is Emily's husband.

Explanation:

- Emily says, "His father-in-law's only daughter is my mother-in-law."
- "His father-in-law" means the man's wife's father.
- "His father-in-law's only daughter" refers to the man's wife.
- "Is my mother-in-law" means that the man's wife is Emily's mother-in-law, which implies that the man in the photograph is married to Emily. Therefore, the man in the photograph is Emily's husband.

Emily points to a man in a photograph and says, "The only daughter of his father-in-law is my mother-in-law." How is Emily connected to the man in the photograph?

The man in the photograph is Emily's husband.

Explanation:

- Emily says, "His father-in-law's only daughter is my mother-in-law."
- "His father-in-law" means the man's wife's father.
- "His father-in-law's only daughter" refers to the man's wife.
- "Is my mother-in-law" means that the man's wife is Emily's mother-in-law, which implies that the man in the photograph is